GRIFFIN FERRY

Miss Nellie Overton and Earl Wallace are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. E. C. Neely. Miss Overton is of La Center, Washington.

Dan Robertson has been quite sick of late.

The Mapleton school was out Friday. A picnic dinner was served on the grounds, after which the children of the school entertained the visitors with recitations and songs.

On Sunday afternoon Dave Robertson and family, E. C. Neely and family, Miss Nellie Overton and Earl Wallace spent a pleasant time on the river near the ferry.

Mrs. A. C. Ford went to the Pleasant Grove Sunday school Sunday.

Mrs. Dan Falvey was visited by Roseburg friends Monday.

Mrs. Nellie Shelley expects to leave soon for Monmouth, where her daughter, Blanche, is at normal.

The final examinations are over with and the returns have been received, showing that Velma Everton, Myrtle Ford and Leona Robertson were the graduates. All of these were of the Mapleton school.

P. T. Everton has been hauling lumber to the Flanagan mine this week.

Mrs. J. L. Green and daughter, Orpha, are now at the Butler berry farm north of Merlin, where they expect to remain during the strawberry season.

G. H. Griffin and family spent Wednesday night in Grants Pass.

If mining negotiations and mining talk in this district materialize, the Griffin Ferry and Picket creek country will have all the rest of southern Oregon beat.

A number of ranchers and land owners in this section are signing options at good prices for dredging purposes. However, other adjoining lands must yet be secured, so as to have sufficient land in a solid body, or the deal can not go through, even if the gold is here.

W. S. Waters, who claims to be the original promoter of the Slide Gulch quicksilver mine on Picket creek, and who has spent four months at the Almadene quicksilver mine in California for the purpose of gaining information as to the best method, values, etc., has returned and visited this community Wednesday. He says the Almadene is the largest in the United States and supports a camp or town of over 3,000 people and runs on less than two per cent ore, while the whole hill on Picket gives better than five.

But what looked best to the writer was a visit to the Flanagan mine, and in response to an invitation watched them retorting the quick from the gold. This, I was told, was only one small batch out of several, yet it turned out thirteen pounds of gold.

C. E. Nelson, of Canada, is installing a steam power gold saying machine on this property which is expected to be a permanent affair. While J. C. Johnson has returned to Seattle to place his machines on the market, having perfected his plans on the same.

Mr. Nelson informs us that a quorum of the dwellers of the mine got together and christened the place, and hereafter it shall be known as Briggsville, with Nelson boulevard, Green street and Lovers lane.

T. E. Loban, of Golden, was visiting in Leland last Sunday.

Mr. Blundel finished a successful term of school at Leland last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Blundel have moved to Riddle, to their farm. We wish them much success in their new occupation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, of Wolf Creek, came over last Sunday and were the guests of the Ellis family.

Dan Peterson and two sisters, Helen and Louise, of Hugo, attended the Leland dance last Saturday.

Miss Birdie Gearhart went to Gledale last Friday to have some dental work done.

Missee Beulah Smith and Beryl Light came up from Grants Pass last Saturday to attend the Leland dance, and Miss Beulah Smith was the guest of her cousin, Miss Nellie Smith, over Sunday.

Jesse Orme went to Grants Pass last Saturday to visit her brother, Grant, for a few days.

The Hugo ball team came over and played ball with Leland Sunday. The score was 12 to 28 in favor of Leland.

Died, May 17, Mrs. Lou Ferrant. Although Mrs. Ferrant has been an invalid for many years, her death was unexpected.

Our sugar beet farmers are very busy cultivating their beet crops. It is with interest that we are all watching the sugar beets grow in our section of the country, and we hope to see the beet crop a great success.

Appropriate.

The worshippers in a certain chapel had some trouble to keep their faces straight a short time ago. During the service some commotion was caused by a gentleman who accidentally ignited a box of wax matches in his pocket and was trying to put them out, while his alarmed neighbors struggled equally hard to help him. The minister, being shortsighted, could not make out the reason of the disturbance, and, thinking diplomatically to cover the incident, he innocently said: "Brethren, there is a little noise going on. Until it is over let us sing 'Sometimes a Light Surprises.'"—London Answers.

MURPHY

A number from Murphy remained in the city during the entire session of the state grange. Nearly every one attended one or more of the meetings.

W. G. White reports a big crop of strawberries at Fairview and that they were not damaged by the hard frosts of last week.

The eighth grade examinations for the Murphy and Laurel Grove schools were given at the Murphy school house. This week finishes the term of nine months school for this district.

The teacher, Miss Hague, leaves immediately for her home in California.

The state grange has come and gone and all who attended express themselves as instructed and pleased with the workings of that body. Many pleasant acquaintances were made and old friendships renewed. Mr. Edwards, who lived at Murphy years ago, was a prominent delegate. Mr. Stewart, who married Fred Knox's sister; Mr. Stone and wife, relatives of the Elmer Brown family, remained over until Monday and are so well pleased with our valley that they intend to come here to live. The Commercial club surely did a wise thing when they sent the invitation to meet here, as every granger was loud in their praises of this beautiful southern Oregon, and had we had our usual sunny warm weather the whole delegation would no doubt have remained. Many signified their intention of disposing of their property and returning here in the near future to live.

Gene Hayes and Miss Grace Hague drove over to Kerby Sunday evening with Miss Hague's sister, who teaches in the Kerby school.

M. M. Ainsworth is driving horses now, having badly damaged his auto on one of his campaign trips.

The candidates dance was a big success. Quite an imposing feature was the grand march, led by all the candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young drove down to Ashland Sunday with their son in his car.

Mrs. Barnes, who has been in the hospital in Grants Pass for some time, has returned home and is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riley have moved into the city and are located in the north part of town.

Miss Bertha Coats came over from Leland, where she is teaching, to attend the candidates dance Saturday evening, returning Sunday.

A party composed of Winnie Osborn, Miss Hague and Miss Grace Hague, Lucille Harter and Gene Hayes drove down to Ashland Sunday.

A Scandal Spelled.

"Of course he and his wife seem devoted to each other now," said the jealous Miss Gauspiss, "but do you think she will always be so true and all that?"

"Well," replied Miss Kidder, "I have reason to know that only last night he had occasion to set a trap for her."

"Ah! Do you know, I suspected something!"

"They more than suspected; they knew there were mice in the house,"—Philadelphia Press.

No Need of Any Change.

Her Parent—You must understand, sir, that I want my daughter to have as good as a home after marriage as before. Her Sutor—Well, you're not going to break up housekeeping, are you?—Boston Transcript.
